CHRISTMAS ON THE FARM

By JOE CONE

Old Christmas days upon the farm, them are the days for me. With miles of deep an' glitt'rin' snow, ez clean ez it kin be; The white an' silent woodland where the pines are bendin' low, With here an' there a rabbit track a-windin' through the snow! Oh, Christmas is a happy time in palace or in cot— At least it is supposed to be, an' ez like ez not— But Christmas days upon the farm, where joy is runnin' free, Where old time Christmas ways are kept, them are the days for me!

There's all the stockin's hung across the fireplace big an' black. So easy for old Santy Claus to come down with his pack, While in the city homes I've seen the chimneys are so small. It is a wonder Santy Claus kin squeeze down them at all; There's all the open country roads where he kin drive his sleigh. With no electric cars an' things forever in the way; There's all the great big pantries, too, where he kin stop an' eat— Oh, Christmas days upon the farm, no, sir, they can't be beat!

Then Christmas day there comes the boys an' girls from here an' there; Some from the city, some from town, they come from everywhere To eat their Christmas dinner on their good old daddy's farm. Which never seems to lose for them its quaint an' simple charm. They know the turkey an' the sass an' golden punkin' pies Are "just like mother used to make," a Christmas paradise! Oh, Christmas in the city must be lonesome, cold an' drear With every one gone to the farms to hev their Christmas cheer.

Then Christmas night there comes the tree in grandma's big front room. With strings of popcorn, apples, stars, an' candles all abloom. With grandpa dressed ez Santy Claus, so dignified an' tall. While readin' off the children's names, bright presents for them all. An' then the Christmas stories round the backlog burnin' bright. An' then the peaceful slumber of a country Christmas night. Oh, Christmas days in palace halls may very happy be. But Christmas days upon the farm, them are the days for me!

NEWSINPROSPECT

Augustus Rider Warns the Public Against Negotiating Notes Stolen from Him.

THE BEVIS DIVORCE MATTER

Recalls a Sensation in the Village That Was Current a Year or Two Ago—The Death of J. S. Harrison, News of the Seriously Ill Senatorium To Be Finished.

Prospect, Dec. 10.—Augustus Rider has warned persons from negotiating stolen notes given by Perry Baumgartner and upon which he was surety. The notes have been abstracted without his knowledge from his private papers.

Miss Mattie Gant entertained the High school graduating class. Charley Watkins of Radnor, who was badly injured in a runaway on Thanksgiving day, is able to be about, but is still very sore.

Perry Baumgartner will soon leave for Florida, to make his future home. A great commotion was aroused in Prospect by the announcement in last Thursday's Star of the Bevis divorce case being filed. Both parties are well known here and the event has aroused memories of former interesting situations, in which the parties concerned were parties. Mrs. Bevis is in Colorado at present.

Mrs. Ella Wadley is very ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Siver in Ashley, where she went to spend Thanksgiving.

The condition of Mrs. Mary Tuttle, who has been ill a long time, does not improve.

J. S. Harrison, well known in Marion and Delaware counties, died at his home near Richmond, Thursday morning. The funeral took place Friday afternoon, the remains being placed in the vault at Prospect. Mr. Harrison was a brother of W. P. Harrison of this city.

Watkins Bros. shipped from Delaware this week a fine lot of horses to Coldwater, Michigan.

Jon Edwards is very ill with typhoid fever.

Four fine jobs were shipped last week by the George W. Cook Wagon company.

The intentions are that the sanatorium will soon be completed, as arrangements have been made to secure the necessary money.

NEAR FT. WAYNE

Is Marvin Kuhns Who Recently Escaped from the Pen.

A Port Wayne, Indiana, special to Sunday's Cincinnati Enquirer tells of the whereabouts of Marvin Kuhns.

Marvin Kuhns, who escaped from the Columbus penitentiary some days ago, is at the home of his brother, Joseph Kuhns, in Noble county, just a few miles north of here. Bert Hires, a prominent citizen of Albion and an acquaintance of Kuhns, was in the city today and said that Peter Kuhns, Marvin's father, who now lives at Albion, was sent for on Thursday to go to his son Joseph's home in the country. He returned Friday, and had no hesitancy in telling his friends that "Marvin was at Joe's house." He arrived Wednesday driving a horse to a light luggage. The officers of the county know he is at home, but they know he could not be taken without bloodshed, and as the reward offered by the Ohio officials is only $50, Kuhns will not be molested. Elmer Gault, who runs a stage factory at Arcola, south of Albion, says he recognized Kuhns as a man who traded horses with a farmer on Tuesday. The next day the farmer had to give up the horse, which had been stolen at Fredon, on the Ohio state line.

The Huber Manufacturing Company Can't Make Engines Fast Enough at Present.

VARYING SIZES OF THRESHERS

The Company Has Pioneered Trade for Both Exceptionally Large and Exceptionally Small Separators, and Has Ports Are All Indicative of Big Business During Coming Year.

The Huber Manufacturing company is still looking orders for engines. The engine department is away behind with the work, and as rapidly as an engine is constructed it is shipped to some customer of the company.

The Huber company is arranging to build a large number of the largest sized separators ever manufactured here. The Huber people first placed them on the market last season, and the demand was so great in the Northwest that it has been decided to increase the output. Besides this, the company manufactures a small separator for the mountainous country, which is also in great demand.

From the present outlook the wheat crop will be good next season. Naturally it is rather early to make any predictions in regard to the yield of next season. From reports received from all parts of the United States, however, the prospects are favorable for an unusually prosperous season for the winter wheat crop.

Good Advice

Nerve Influence

Is the subtle force which controls the different organs of the body. It makes them strong or weak, healthy or diseased, according as the brain and nerves are strong and vigorous or weak and diseased. Weak nerves cause headache, nervousness, neuralgia, indigestion, heart trouble and many other forms of chronic weakness. Make the nerves strong, the brain clear and active and the body will be healthy and vigorous.

"I was taken with a peculiar ailment that affected my head and my nerves were all unstrung. I was very nervous, could not sleep and my mind was all confused. I doctored for several weeks without getting better and then began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine. The first bottle relieved me so much that I kept on, and when I had used seven bottles I was well."

For treasurer, J. M. Haged, Frank Fournier, Frank G. Dyer, Michael G. Dyer, Richard R. H. Dyer of Prospect, E. H. P. H. and W. H. H. Haged have been talked of. All except the last named those are known to be candidates and it is understood that the others have suggestions which led him to develop into a full fledged case of political fever. Some time before the time comes for holding ward caucuses, Fournier is the present party treasurer and Haged is deputy party treasurer.

On the Republican side of the fence there have been absolutely no announcements yet, save those of Haged, who wants the nomination for sheriff, and Haged, who wants the nomination for sheriff, and Haged, who wants the nomination for sheriff.

These are plenty of them already, with suggestions that more will follow, hence the Star at this time will make no effort to predict who will be the successful ones.

The Republicans will be all present, with the exception of Haged, for money, although there has been some talk of opposition. Haged has been mentioned by many Democrats as a good fellow to be named. TELLS OF A BATTLE WITH NATIVES

Thirty-Six Men of His Company Part
to Fight Seven Hundred Moros
Armed with Maseos. The Fine
Work of a Three-Pounder-Awful
Havages of Power in Camp.

Mr. R. H. Miller, chief of the Marion Artillery, who is now in the Philippines, has written his brother, Mr. R. H. Miller, who is now in the Philippines,
a letter telling of a battle with
natives.

During the battle, Miller's company, which was composed of thirty-six men, fought with seven hundred Moros. The Moros were armed with maseos, which are long, thin, pointed sticks of wood, and were very effective in the hands of the
natives.

Miller's company was successful in driving the Moros from the camp, and the battle was a great victory for the Americans.

Fainting Spells

Are peculiar to women. Men rarely faint. Many women are liable to what they term "fainting spells," and this liability is always most marked at the monthly period. This alone is sufficient to connect the "fainting spell" with a deranged or diseased condition of the womanly organs. The name of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity, heals inflammation and ulceration, and stops the drains which weaken the body. It builds up the nervous system, increases the vital powers, and so removes the common causes of faintness in women. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

"It gives me much pleasure," writes Miss Ella Sapp of Jamestown, Guilford Co., N.C., "to thank Dr. Pierce for the great good rendered from the use of his 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I had suffered for three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I would die with pain in my back and stomach. I could not stand on my feet without fainting, had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends suggested trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle, I felt better, had better appetite and sleep. Now I have taken two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and am happy to say I am entirely cured, and all done in two months' time, when all other medicines had failed to do any good."

TAILOR MADE GOWNS.

The Bolero or Coat Bodice Predominates For Them.

For tailor made gowns the bolero is always a bolero of a coat, covered with a short lapel. For cold weather this is not sufficient for out of doors, of course, and therefore such costumes as are made for wear under a sack, cape or other heavy wrap may have a plain, tightly fitting bolero.

For a long time the skirt has been worn over the bolero with a belt except by very stout women, who have adopted a bolero pointed at the back and front, thus avoiding the necessity for a belt. By finishing the top of the skirt with a fine cord instead of a band and arranging a concealed fastening at the back it may be worn without a separate waistband.

will also clean white kid articles to a certain degree, unless the soiled spots have been rubbed into the surface.

The illustration given today shows a tailor made costume of silver gray cloth. The skirt is plain, with a wateau plait at the back. The bolero comes to the waist line at the back, but in front is elongated in round tails and closed by two stitched straps with buttons. The large revers and collar of cloth are covered with applications of folds of silver gray satin. The tall, daring collar is bordered and lined with chinchilla. The sleeves are rather short and are open, showing a full puff of gray satin gathered into a wristband of cloth ornamented like the revers. A jabot of lace is carried down the front of the bolero. The hat of gray felt has a brim composed of loops of black velvet and is trimmed with a gray ostrich plume and a buckle.

"I don't," replied the old man, "an I move right now that you take this here ax and cut me 'bout ten cords of wood outen 'em. So jerk yer coat an' light in!"—Atlanta Constitution.
